The Last 100 Years of the Roman Republic

Directions: Read section 6.3 (141-144) – do not read “Julius Caesar rose to power”. While reading you will come across the ideas listed in the center column of this sheet. For each of these ideas explain the cause of the idea as well as the effect of the idea. This requires you to think and to read analytically, it is worth your time and effort because it is important information you will have to know

CAUSE (What led to the Event/Idea?)	EVENT/IDEA	EFFECT (What happened afterward?)
	The wealthy citizens gained more land and became wealthier
	By 100 BC slaves formed about 1/3 of the Roman population
	There was a new rising class of people called the proletariat
	Tiberius and Gaius Gracchus proposed reforms
	Marius allowed the city's landless poor to enlist in the army
	Sulla defeated Marius in Civil War
